Our drum circle events are:

vitalising – drumming wakes you up, increases attentiveness, and proves to be an excellent pick-me-up at any time of day.

relaxing – drumming relieves stress, fosters well-being and focuses attention on the present moment! It just makes you feel happy – and fast! – as scientific studies from Europe and the U.S. have shown.

extraordinary – a drum circle facilitator can bring a team together without (many) words, co-creating “music in the moment” in cooperation with all participants.

challenging – at first you might think that drumming with so many people is difficult. First reactions like “I have no sense of rhythm”, “this cannot work”, and “I can’t drum” are transformed into a sense of achievement.

interactive – all participants are drumming, seeing and hearing each other, communicating with and relating to each other, experiencing themselves as part of a community, and are invited to express their imagination, creativity and joy!

connecting – drum circles bring people together. Tolerance, cooperation und team spirit are holistically experienced and embodied!

„Drum Circles are about relationships – a group always has more potential than they realize“ motivating – drumming is fun, induces joy and raises vitality. Any team can witness the creation of a musical community from which innovation arises organically. This kind of experience motivates – even long after the event has ended!

sustainable – every participant contributes to and is part of a larger rhythmic whole. In this way, long-term memory is supported and the themes of the event are remembered in a pleasant way.

Testimonials

I felt freedom, when Ricarda was facilitating in Barcelona. Her smile assures to all the drum circle players that they are playing in a safe spot. It's a gift. Ricarda has excellent musical skills and I love her facilitations very much.

Santi Carcelona, professioneller Musiker, Barcelona - Spanien

Ricarda Raabe showed that an expert conference really can be done differently. She really brought the room to a boil with her passionate drumming action.

Jörg Sobeck, president of the Association of German Amateur Theatres, Berlin

Working with Ricarda is fun, energetic and induces an appetite for drumming – literally. At her drum circle, I experienced a sense of solidarity, mutual appreciation and acceptance. Teamwork with rhythm and beat, led by a highly likeable, well-versed and customer-oriented trainer!

Eleonora Alexandrova Meyden, EAMPERFORM Training & Coaching Consulting Berlin

The drum circle brightened up the event. Turns out that even people in administrative jobs can drum. :-)

All participants were enthusiastic and would love to do this again.

Peter Lutz, Director at Federal Employment Agency Berlin Mitte – In-House Service, Controlling and Finances

Ricarda is a great professional with a charming personality that can bring to your corporation unity, collaboration, respect and listening through amazing teambuilding events and trainings.

Oliver Daniel Solano Watson, business manager and music therapist, Villanova - Spain

Yeeees – it was a great intro to the meeting, many heartfelt thanks, again... my foot kept tapping for a long time after...

Katrin Linke-Otto, Regional Manager, UCI Multiplex GmbH, Kinowelt nova events

We had booked the drum circle as a team building event. It was great! Ricarda Raabe understands perfectly how to involve and inspire everyone present. Something in common could arise. That was very motivating. We can highly recommend it!

Dr. Sandra Bräutigam, study coordinator, Beuth University of Applied Sciences, January 2019
